

NPOs for Headteachers and Executive Leaders

The newly reformed NPQH and NPQEL equip new and aspirant Headteachers, Heads of School and Executive Leaders with the skills, knowledge and confidence required to begin and sustain new and challenging roles.

- Underpinned by the latest evidence of what works in improving teaching and outcomes for children and young people
- Delivered flexibly to ensure you can invest in your own professional development alongside your existing commitments
- Directly relevant and applicable to your current roles
- Career-building – preparing you for future roles and helping you to build strong professional networks that will sustain you
- Designed for leaders from a wide range of settings
- Focused on the skills needed to implement and sustain change and improvement

LLSE NPOs will enable you to tailor the programme to closely meet your individual needs and be responsive to the context in which you are leading.

A highly flexible delivery model with a clear focus on leading and implementing sustainable change ensures that these highly accessible programmes impact directly on your effectiveness as a leader now and in the future.

NPQ in Headship (NPQH) is suitable for those aspiring to or new to Headship and Head of School roles.

Delivered on a regional basis, NPQH enables you to learn alongside colleagues in a range of contexts and settings, sharing expertise and developing peer networks.

NPQ in Executive Leadership (NPQEL) is suitable for those aspiring to or new to executive leadership roles, including as an Executive Headteacher or a Trust CEO.

As part of a national community of executive leaders you will access excellent and wide-ranging input and benefit from the opportunity to develop professional relationships beyond your local area or specific context.

New Headteacher Support Programme is a fully funded programme for those new to Headship or Head of School positions within the first 2 years of appointment.

Designed to be highly personalised according to need and context, the programmes include topic-based training sessions, peer networking, school visits, coaching and mentoring opportunities.
