Headship

For school leaders who are, or are aspiring to be, a headteacher or head of school with responsibility for leading a school.

Our content is developed by school leaders and domain specialists. We utilise a strong evidence base to provide materials designed to enhance your knowledge and skill

Our programmes are expertly facilitated by experienced school and HEI leaders who contextualise the materials to respond to your local context

You'll access an excellent online learning platform making your learning accessible anytime anywhere

We provide a personal, friendly and professional service operating in over 69 local authorities and across 25 countries

What will I study?

This course will equip you with the knowledge and skills to make evidence informed decisions about school leadership. You will be confident in leading others to develop their practice and skilled at implementing sustainable change across a range of areas like classroom practice, behaviour and culture, organisational management and working in partnership with others.

How will I study?

Our courses offer a blend of approaches to study:

- Face to face facilitated workshops
- Online facilitated live webinars
- Online study, including engagement with research, opportunities to tackle scenarios, individually reflect and collectively contribute to discussion activities
- Work with a coach

What is it like to do this course?

"The face-to-face session was really interesting, and it was positive to see other people on the course and do the activities together. I also find the webinars to be really focused. I feel we cover lots of different areas in a short, focused timescale which is very useful."
