Leading Behaviour and Culture

For teachers who have, or are aspiring to have, responsibilities for leading behaviour and/or supporting pupil wellbeing in their school.

- Our content is developed by school leaders and domain specialists. We utilise a strong evidence base to provide materials designed to enhance your knowledge and skill
- Our programmes are expertly facilitated by experienced school and HEI leaders who contextualise the materials to respond to your local context
- You'll access an excellent online learning platform, making your learning accessible anytime, anywhere
- We provide a personal, friendly and professional service operating in over 69 local authorities and across 25 countries

What will I study?

This course will equip you with the knowledge and skills to make evidence informed decisions about the school and classroom culture you need to establish to support teachers and students. You will complete the course able to implement meaningful and sustainable improvements in behaviour and culture.

How will I study?

Our courses offer a blend of approaches to study:

- ▶ Face to face facilitated workshops
- ▶ Online facilitated live webinars
- ▶ Online study, including engagement with research, opportunities to tackle scenarios, individually reflect and collectively contribute to discussion activities
- ▶ Work with a coach

What is it like to do this course?

"I am enjoying the research element of the course as I feel I am gaining an insightful understanding into different cultures of behaviour and making reference to highly recommended sources."
